THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION

- 25X1 1. The women of Dolna Sushitsa, (QX-3435) and Levunovo, (QX-2435), with few 25X1 exceptions, are organized into women's organizations. Pressure is brought 25X1 to bear on Communist Party members by threatening mothers with expulsion of their children from school.
2. After becoming a member, each housewife is compelled to attend meetings three times a week. Those who do not attend are blasphemed publicly at the next meeting. Many household complications arise because of these meetings. Men beat their wives because they attend meetings and forget their housework and cooking. The marital relationship in many homes is on the brink of collapse.
3. On Sundays, the Party requires all women to work together in a children's garden, or else to sweep out their courtyards in unison.
4. During January 1951, when the cotton was gathered, peasants who were unable to fulfill the cotton quota were proclaimed enemies of the people. The Communists brought groups of peasants in front of the houses of those who failed to meet the quota and forced the farmer to chant, "Kulak, enemy of the people." Each individual in the mob was compelled to yell this slogan individually, and then it was chanted en masse. Even old white-haired men were forced by the Communists to join these mobs. After having yelled their slogans, the old men returned to their homes, crossed themselves, and prayed to God to take them from this earth, so that they might not be forced on a subsequent occasion to go to the house of one who possibly had been a close friend for many years.
